Tax Deductions and Related Parties:

DAF operates in accordance with the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 and will not knowingly approve proposed grants to documentaries of related party interests or grants from individuals or organisations who stand to gain any material benefit as a result of making them. If you are related to the filmmaker, or you have a commercial interest in the subject matter or content of the film, or otherwise stand to materially benefit as a result of the film being made, you cannot receive a tax-deduction for a donation made to that project through DAF.

In submitting this form, I acknowledge that I am not a family member, partner or spouse of the filmmaker/s of my preferred project, and that I do not stand to gain any material benefit as a result of the film being made.

Please note: the Documentary Australia Foundation Board will not willingly approve proposed grants to documentaries of related party interests or grants from individuals or organisations who stand to gain any material benefit as a result of making them.

Donations to Documentary Australia Foundation of $2 or more are tax-deductible. DAF passes 93% of donations of $2 or more on to the specified project, and retains 7% to help ensure its long-term sustainability. DAF receives no government funding and relies on philanthropic support to continue operating.
